

NCCP Sport Coach Clinic Information

Dates	Friday, April 12, 6pm to 9pm (classroom) Saturday, April 13, 9am to 5pm (classroom morning, track afternoon) Sunday, April 14, 9am to 5pm (track morning, classroom afternoon)
Course	The NCCP Sport Coach course (formerly Level 1) is a great introduction to coaching track and field. The course will cover teaching progression, long term athlete development, practice planning, error detection and correction, safety, rules and more. Events covered will be sprints, hurdles, middle distance, relays, long jump, triple jump, high jump, shot put, javelin and discus.
Location	Huntsville, Ontario
Coordinator	Stephanie Parry
Instructor	Brian Risk is an NCCP Level 5 coach and has been assigned to 14 national teams. He is a published author, has 30+ years of coaching experience, retired teacher, retired National Pole Vault Development Chair for Canada, and Master Course Conductor/contributing author for the NCCP program.
Cost	$175 (cheque payable to Brian Risk) each
Gear	Bring pen, pencil, activity attire (indoor/outdoor)
Manuals	All participants will receive comprehensive NCCP technical manuals
Register	Register with Stephanie Parry stephanie@huntsvilletrackclub.ca
Deadline	April 10, 2019 at 3:30pm
Age	You must be at least 16 years of age to register for this course.
Activity	This is an activity-based workshop. You are encouraged to participate in the activities as best you can. You should dress for light activity.
Cancel	This course requires 13 coaches minimum in order to run.

