
Navigating University Recruitment

Did you know that there are nearly 1300 universities, colleges, and junior colleges with track and field programs in Canada and the US? With all of the opportunities out there, how do you find the right school for you?

BC Athletics and Streamline Athletes are proud to present Navigating University Recruitment: a seminar for high school athletes, parents, and coaches interested in learning more about university track and field recruitment.

Join us for a presentation about university recruitment for BC athletes, a panel discussion with former collegiate athletes who will share advice from their own experiences, and a demo of Streamline Athletes' recruiting tools for athletes and parents.

We're proud of our student-athletes from across BC and strive to support them as they think about where they might want to live, study, train, and compete for their university years. With Navigating University Recruitment, athletes and parents will get the info they need to make confident decisions about their futures.

See you there!
