  - 1 female -57 kg to -63 kg

GRAND CHAMPIONSHIP

The Grand Championship is only at Judo Alberta Provincial Championship and is for males and females who are ranked Ikkyu (brown) and Yudansha (black). Each contestant in the Grand Championship must be 18 years old or older. If the winner of a weight division is under the age of 18 years, there will be no contestant for that weight division.

Some concern has been expressed over the safety factor in having individuals competing against each other whose weights widely vary. The Technical Committee is aware that for 85 years of its 130-year history, judo was without weight divisions. To preserve the traditions, and to consider the safety of the contestants, the Technical Committee has adopted a procedure whereby men in -60 kg, -66 kg and -73 kg compete as a group and -81 kg, -90 kg, -100 kg and +100 kg compete as another group. Then, the winner from each of these groups will compete for the title of "Grand Champion". The matches are single elimination.

Where a female Grand Championship is to be held, the winners of the -48 kg, -52 kg and -57 kg categories will fight as a group and the winners of the -63 kg, -70 kg, -78 kg, and +78 kg categories will fight as another group. Then, the winner from each of these groups will compete for the title of "Grand Champion". The matches are single elimination.
