The event is part of the Athletics for All program aimed at breaking down barriers and fostering increased sport participation among two specific demographics: newcomers to Canada and athletes with disabilities. It is one of several events throughout the province, providing individuals with the opportunity to experience Athletics free of charge. These events are tailored to beginners, welcoming participants of all ages and abilities.

If you are an athlete with a disability or a newcomer to Canada, check out the following link for details. <https://www.anb.ca/event/athletics-for-all-come-and-learn/1959/>
