COMPETITION INFORMATION – GENERAL

The scheduled start time for any event on either or both days may be delayed or accelerated by 30 to 45 minutes.

This is a closed event for MTA clubs & their members. Only athletes registered with an MTA-registered club may compete. All Clubs must have their athletes registered and the annual administration fee paid before the entry deadline.

MTA BY-LAW 14: CHAMPIONSHIP MEETS RE: TRACK EVENTS

Length of spikes for sprint and running footwear must not exceed 6mm.

ADVANCEMENT TO FINALS

- If there are six (6) heats, the eight (8) fastest times will advance.
- If there are seven (7) or more heats, there will be two finals, an A and B. The times from both the A and the B combined finals will be used to determine overall finishing order and award winners.

Over the two-day competition period, athletes may compete in four (4) individual events in addition to the relays. However, athletes are limited to competing in a maximum of three (3) field events or three (3) track events.

COMPETITION INFORMATION RE: FIELD EVENTS

- In the throwing and jumping events athletes will have three (3) attempts after which the top eight (8) ranked athletes will have two (2) additional attempts.
- Competition in all field events requires that footwear be worn at all times.
- If a field event starts before a track event, athletes competing in both events at coinciding times must inform one of the field officials before reporting to their track event. For younger athletes (e.g. Peewees and Mites), a club coach is responsible for doing so.

➤ MTA will provide throwing implements.

MEET DETAILS

- To avoid unnecessary waiting times, registered coaches are requested to meet their athletes outside the Registration Area to ensure they receive their entry wristbands. No coach or athlete will be admitted to the playing field without a wristband.
- A Coach's wristband will be issued to each coach registered with MTA before Monday, July 14. Coaches must be registered with MTA before this deadline to receive a wristband. The wristband must be worn for both days.
- Club tents will be permitted in the venue in the grassy areas; around the outside of the track. No tents are allowed on the track. Organizers may require tents to be re-positioned, if in their opinion it is unsafely placed and/or causes any obstruction
- Waiver forms must be completed online at Trackie
- Track events will run PG - PB - MG - MB - TG - TB - AG - AB - IG - IB -YG - YB.
- Events will be announced with plenty of time before the actual start - only athletes about to compete and their coaches will be allowed on the field - absolutely no parents or non-coaches
- On-site First Aid will be available
