LOCATION OF MACAÉ

Located in the northern region of the State of Rio de Janeiro, the city of Macaé is nationally recognized as the National Capital of Oil, being one of the main hubs of the oil and gas industry in Brazil. Modern, well-structured, and welcoming, the city combines economic development, excellent hotel and gastronomic infrastructure, as well as a privileged natural environment between the sea and the mountains.

Macaé is approximately 190 km from Tom Jobim International Airport (Galeão), in the city of Rio de Janeiro. The road trip takes approximately 2 hours and 30 minutes to 3 hours, depending on traffic conditions, with access via the main highways of the state.

In addition to its business dynamism, Macaé enchants visitors with its tourist attractions. The municipality features beautiful beaches such as Praia dos Cavaleiros, known for its urbanized waterfront and varied gastronomic offerings, and Praia do Pecado, popular for sports activities. For nature and ecotourism lovers,
