

Declaration of Non-Pregnancy

For Woman Boxers aged 18 and Older

As part of the Boxing Entries Check prior to each Boxing Canada or World Boxing Competition, the Boxer's Declaration of Non-Pregnancy must be completed within thirty (30) days from the start of the competition and signed by the Woman Boxer.

Boxing Canada will share personal data with World Boxing only when a Canadian Athlete, or athlete with Refugee status residing within Canada, is registered for a World Boxing event.

Boxing Canada and World Boxing are responsible for the personal data submitted in this Boxer's Declaration of Non-Pregnancy. They have legal responsibility in processing Boxers' personal data, in accordance with applicable data protection laws, for the purposes of boxer's medical clearance, to enable participation in each Sanctioned Boxing Competition. The provision of the information requested below is mandatory before each competition. Failure to provide this information will mean that the Boxer cannot participate in the competition.

Boxing Canada's processing of data will take place within Canada, and World Boxing's processing of data will take place within Switzerland, where World Boxing headquarters are located. The Boxer's personal data will not be kept after a period of four (4) years following the end of the competition, except if specific circumstances justify keeping the data longer (e.g. in case of disputes or health concerns arising after the competition).

The Boxer has the right to request access, rectification, erasure, restriction of processing, objection to processing and to portability of personal data.

- The Boxer may contact Boxing Canada to exercise their rights, or for any questions regarding privacy, via email (info@boxingcanada.org).
- The Boxer may contact World Boxing to exercise their rights, or for any questions regarding privacy, via email (info@worldboxing.org). The Boxer also has the right to complain to the Swiss Federal Data Protection and Information Commissioner.

By signing this Declaration of Non-Pregnancy, the Boxer confirms that they have read and understood the above mentioned information and accept its content. The Boxer also consents to the disclosure of the Boxer's health information to Boxing Canada and World Boxing by signing this Declaration of Non-Pregnancy.

Boxer's Declaration of Non-Pregnancy

I hereby declare that I am not pregnant. I understand the seriousness of this statement and accept full responsibility for it. In the case that this declaration is subsequently shown to be inaccurate or untrue and the Boxer suffers any related injury or damage during the competition, I, on behalf of the Boxer, her heirs, executors and administrators, waive and release any and all claims for damages she may have against World Boxing (including its officials and employees), the organizers of the competition and the Competition Venue owners for such injury or damage.

Boxer's name:
IOC country code of the Boxer's National Federation:
Boxer's signature (acknowledgement):
Date (dd/mm/yyyy):	