

ATLANTIC THROWS SUMMIT MONCTON MAY 14 - 15

Athletics New Brunswick is pleased to announce it will be hosting the Atlantic Throws Summit in Moncton on May 14th and 15th! Athletes and coaches of all ages and skill sets are welcome to attend and participate in the sessions. All technical sessions will take place at the Moncton Throws Complex located next to Moncton Stadium, while classroom sessions and the coach's roundtable session will take place in the CEPS Complex, also next to Moncton Stadium.

In addition to the regular sessions, coaches may also choose to take the technical modules of the NCCP Performance Coach training in throws, facilitated by Athletics New Brunswick High Performance Coordinator and Coach, Steve LeBlanc.

Registration:

One Day	$25
Both Days	$40
NCCP Modules	$50

Registration can be found online at: www.trackiereg.com/AtlanticThrowsSummit2016
Registration closes at 11:59pm on Thursday, May 12th, 2016.

Schedule

Saturday

10:00am-12:30pm	Shot Put
1:30pm-4:00pm	Discus
4:30pm-5:30pm	Coaches Roundtable

Sunday

10:00am-12:30pm	Hammer Throw
1:30pm-4:00pm	Javelin

Youth Development Sessions

Sunday

10:00am-12:00pm
1:30pm-3:30pm

Richard Parkinson

Throws Coach at York University and personal coach of Brittany Crew, gold medalist in both the shot put and weight throw at the 2016 CIS Track and Field Championships, bronze medalist at the 2015 Summer Universiade and currently ranked #2 in Canada for the shot put event. Richard has an enormous amount of experience in the throwing events, having coached multiple national team athletes and having been a national team member himself. Richard has coached 5 Canadian Junior Champions, several OFSSA Champions, and one NCAA Champion.

Jonathan Doucette

Manager of Coaching and Technical Development at Athletics Nova Scotia and former CIS gold medalist in the shot put. Jonathan is the throws coach at Halifax Athletics and has been a coach for multiple CIS medalists in both the shot put and the weight throw, and has been a coach for multiple national teams.

Dr. Earl Church

An inductee into the Canadian Paralympic Hall of Fame and The Canadian Cerebral Palsy Sports Association Hall of Fame, Dr. Earl Church is one of the most well known paralympic throws coaches in the nation, having coached at multiple Paralympic Games and World Championships, with many of the athletes he has coached winning medals at the events. Church is also the personal coach of javelin thrower Caleb Jones, reigning Canadian Champion, Canada Games gold medalist, and a member of Team Canada in 2010.

Aaron LeBlanc

2013 Canada Games team member, New Brunswick record holder in the youth weight throw, and silver medalist in the weight throw at the 2013 AUS Track and Field Championships. Aaron will be leading a clinic for youth development at the event, covering shot put, discus, and javelin.

