

Pickleball Overview (For “Doubles”)

The Serve

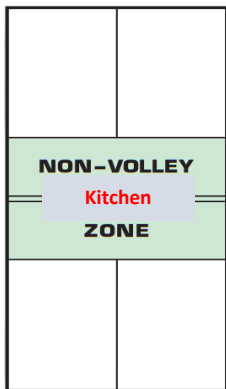

1 serves to 3--> 3 must let it bounce (X)
 3 returns to 2 (or 1)--> 2 (or 1) must let it bounce (X)
 After 2nd bounce, no further bounce required.

	Serve Order	Score	Result	Positions
First serve of game	1 to 3	0-0-2	Serve team wins pt	1 and 2 switch sides and 1 continues serve
Second serve	1 to 4	1-0-2	Receive team wins pt	1 stays on left and 2 on the right.

The Non-Volley Zone (Kitchen)

1. You cannot hit a ball while you're standing in the NVZ (called “The Kitchen”) (or even if any part of your foot is in the NVZ unless the ball bounces first.

2. You can be in the kitchen at any time EXCEPT when hitting a volley (i.e. hitting a ball before it bounces).

Scoring:

- only the serving team scores points
- the serve is always cross-court
- when a team wins the serve, the first serve is always from their right side
- at the start of a game, the serving team gets one serve only
- after the first serve of the game, both team members serve until they both lose points
- the kitchen line is OUT on a serve; the side and end lines are IN
- game is to 11 points -- the winning team must win by 2 points
- score is announced in 3 digits. E.G.: 3-2-2
 - 1st digit is the servers' score; 2nd digit is receivers' score; 3rd digit designates if it is the 1st or 2nd server of the serving team.
