Club News May 21/23

Note: If you are a new member in the past week (or a member who can't find where they saved the latest RDPC club news) go to our Pickleball Canada website and look for Club News 23 to view recent messages. There will be more notices being sent out in the coming weeks.

The summer play committee adjusts programs and schedule options as needs and concerns come forward. The schedule for events/organized play can be found on the summer play page on our website. You will also find information on our ratings program and our policy.

The summer play committee is made up of RDPC members just like you who love pickleball just like you. They work hard trying to meet the needs over 720 members and want a good experience for all but so want and need members just like you to come forward to help ensure programs are successful. Click here to read the following message from the RDPC summer play committee.

If you have any helpful suggestions to improve the experience or offers to be the lead on a session, please send them to: summerplay@reddeerpickleball.com.

If you wish to see what clinics/lessons are being offered by RDPC please go this link. Look for the Sign-Up Genius link. This will be updated when new clinics are added so check back often. Not sure what ratings are or wish to get rated go to this link found on our summer play page: What is my rating.

Red Deer Pickleball Club Volunteers needed! We have been invited to be part of an exciting trade fair on May 31/23(11:00 am to 4:00pm) at the PIDHERNEY CURLING CENTRE (4725 43 Street, Red Deer, AB). It is called Young at Heart.

We will have a full 44X20 court to demonstrate Pickleball as well as encourage attendees to participate in play. Volunteers in addition to playing and helping guests will be promoting the Red Deer Pickleball Club Membership, lessons as well as summer and winter Play options.

Can you help? Contact Rita Kellow-Taylor Pickleball Ambassador Coordinator rita@yabber.m
