

How to Create a Player Account on Pickleball.com

Created by Brandon S, Modified on Wed, Mar 19 at 12:09 PM by Brandon S

Once you have arrived on the main pickleball.com page, use the "Sign up" tab in the upper right hand corner to get started with creating a free player account:

Your first entry will be your email address, which will be used as your sign in. Only 1 account can be associated with an email address. If the email is not already in use, you will be presented with an error message indicating the email is already in use.
