

PEI PICKLEBALL ÎPÉ

Code of Conduct and Ethics

Definitions

The following terms have these meanings in this Code: “Individuals” – All categories of membership defined in the Association’s Bylaws, as well as all individuals employed by, or engaged in activities with, the Association including, but not limited to, athletes, coaches, convenors, referees, officials, volunteers, managers, administrators, committee members, and directors and officers of the Association” – PEI PICKLEBALL ÎPÉ

Purpose

The purpose of this Code is to ensure a safe and positive environment (within the Association’s programs, activities, and events) by making Individuals aware that there is an expectation, at all times, of appropriate behaviour consistent with this Code. The Association supports equal opportunity, prohibits discriminatory practices, and is committed to providing an environment in which all individuals are treated with respect and fairness.

Application of this Code

This Code applies to Individuals’ conduct during the Association’s business, activities, and events including, but not limited to, competitions, practices, tryouts, training camps, travel associated with the Association’s activities, the Association’s office environment, and any meetings.

An Individual who violates this Code may be subject to sanctions pursuant to the Association’s Discipline and Complaints Policy.

An employee of the Association found to have breached this Code will be subject to appropriate disciplinary action subject to the terms of the Association’s Human Resources Policy as well as the employee’s Employment Agreement, as applicable.

This Code also applies to Individuals’ conduct outside of the Association’s business, activities, and events when such conduct adversely affects relationships within the Association (and its work and sport environment) and is detrimental to the image and reputation of the Association. Such applicability will be determined by the Association at its sole discretion.

Responsibilities

Individuals have a responsibility to:

Maintain and enhance the dignity and self-esteem of the Association members and other individuals by:

Demonstrating respect to individuals regardless of body type, physical characteristics, athletic ability, age, ancestry, colour, race, citizenship, ethnic origin, place of origin, creed, disability, family status, marital status, gender identity, gender expression, sex, and sexual orientation.

More specifically, the Association adopts and adheres to the Canadian Anti-Doping Program. The Association will respect any penalty enacted pursuant to a breach of the Canadian Anti-Doping Program, whether imposed by the Association or any other sport Association.

Refrain from associating with any person for the purpose of coaching, training, competition, instruction, administration, management, athletic development, or supervision of the sport, who has incurred an anti-doping rule violation and is serving a sanction involving a period of ineligibility imposed pursuant to the Canadian Anti-Doping Program and/or the World Anti-Doping Code and recognized by the Canadian Centre for Ethics in Sport (CCES).

Refrain from the use of power or authority in an attempt to coerce another person to engage in inappropriate activities.

Refrain from consuming alcohol, tobacco products, or recreational drugs while participating in Association programs, activities, competitions, or events.

In the case of adults, avoid consuming alcohol in situations where minors are present and take reasonable steps to manage the responsible consumption of alcohol in adult-oriented social situations associated with the Association's events.

Respect the property of others and not wilfully cause damage.

Adhere to all federal, provincial, municipal and host country laws.

Comply, at all times, with the Association's bylaws, policies, procedures, and rules and regulations, as adopted and amended from time to time.

Board/Committee Members and Staff

In addition to section 7 (above), Association's Directors, Committee Members, and Staff will have additional responsibilities to:

Function primarily as a member of the board and/or committee(s) of Association; not as a member of any other particular member or constituency.

Act with honesty and integrity and conduct themselves in a manner consistent with the nature and responsibilities of the Association's business and the maintenance of Individuals' confidence.

Ensure that the Association's financial affairs are conducted in a responsible and transparent manner with due regard for all fiduciary responsibilities.

Conduct themselves openly, professionally, lawfully and in good faith in the best interests of Association
Be independent and impartial and not be influenced by self-interest, outside pressure, expectation of reward, or fear of criticism.

Behave with decorum appropriate to both circumstance and position.

Keep informed about the Association's activities, the provincial sport community, and general trends in the sectors in which they operate.

Exercise the degree of care, diligence, and skill required in the performance of their duties pursuant to the laws under which the Association is incorporated.

Respect the confidentiality appropriate to issues of a sensitive nature.

Respect the decisions of the majority and resign if unable to do so.

Commit the time to attend meetings and be diligent in preparation for, and participation in, discussions at such meetings.

Have a thorough knowledge and understanding of all Association governance documents Conform to the bylaws and policies approved by Association.

Coaches

In addition to section 7 (above), coaches have many additional responsibilities.

The coach-athlete relationship is a privileged one and plays a critical role in the personal, sport, and athletic development of the athlete. Coaches must understand and respect the inherent power imbalance that exists in this relationship and must be extremely careful not to abuse it, consciously or unconsciously. Coaches will:

Ensure a safe environment by selecting activities and establishing controls that are suitable for the age, experience, ability, and fitness level of the involved athletes.

Prepare athletes systematically and progressively, using appropriate time frames and monitoring physical and psychological adjustments while refraining from using training methods or techniques that may harm athletes.

Avoid compromising the present and future health of athletes by communicating and cooperating with sport medicine professionals in the diagnosis, treatment, and management of athletes' medical and psychological treatments.

Accept and promote athletes' personal goals and refer athletes to other coaches and sports specialists as appropriate.

Support the coaching staff of a training camp, provincial team, or national team; should an athlete qualify for participation with one of these programs.

Provide athletes (and the parents/guardians of minor athletes) with the information necessary to be involved in the decisions that affect the athlete.

Act in the best interest of the athlete's development as a whole person.

Comply with the Association's Screening Policy.

Report to the Association any ongoing criminal investigation, conviction, or existing bail conditions, including those for violence, child pornography, or possession, use, or sale of any illegal substance.

Under no circumstances provide, promote, or condone the use of drugs (other than properly prescribed medications) or performance enhancing substances and, in the case of minors, alcohol and/or tobacco.

Respect athletes playing with other teams and, in dealings with them, not encroach upon topics or actions which are deemed to be within the realm of 'coaching', unless after first receiving approval from the coaches who are responsible for the athletes.

Not engage in a sexual relationship with an athlete under 18 years old, or an intimate or sexual relationship with an athlete over the age of 18 if the coach is in a position of power, trust, or authority over the athlete.

Recognize the power inherent in the position of coach and respect and promote the rights of all participants in sport.

This is accomplished by establishing and following procedures for confidentiality (right to privacy), informed participation, and fair and reasonable treatment.

Coaches have a special responsibility to respect and promote the rights of participants who are in a vulnerable or dependent position and less able to protect their own rights.

Dress professionally, neatly, and inoffensively.

Use inoffensive language, taking into account the audience being addressed.

Athletes

In addition to section 7 (above), athletes will have additional responsibilities to:

Report any medical problems in a timely fashion, when such problems may limit their ability to travel, practice, or compete; or in the case of carded athletes, interfere with the athlete's ability to fulfill their carded athlete requirements.

Participate and appear on-time, well-nourished, and prepared to participate to their best abilities in all competitions, practices, training sessions, tryouts, tournaments, and events.

Properly represent themselves and not attempt to participate in a competition for which they are not eligible by reason of age, classification, or other reason.

Adhere to the Association's rules and requirements regarding clothing and equipment.

Act in a sportsmanlike manner and not display appearances of violence, foul language, or gestures to other athletes, officials, coaches, or spectators.

Dress in a manner representative of the Association; focusing on neatness, cleanliness, and discretion.

Act in accordance with the Association's policies and procedures and, when applicable, additional rules as outlined by coaches or, managers.

Officials

In addition to section 7 (above), officials will have additional responsibilities to:

Maintain and update their knowledge of the rules and rules changes.

Work within the boundaries of their position's description while supporting the work of other officials.

Act as an ambassador of the Association by agreeing to enforce and abide by national and provincial rules and regulations.

Take ownership of actions and decisions made while officiating.

Respect the rights, dignity, and worth of all individuals.

Not publicly criticize other officials or any club or the Association.

Act openly, impartially, professionally, lawfully, and in good faith.

Be fair, equitable, considerate, independent, honest, and impartial in all dealings.

Respect the confidentiality required by issues of a sensitive nature, which may include ejections, defaults, forfeits, discipline processes, appeals, and specific information or data about Individuals.

Honour all assignments unless unable to do so by virtue of illness or personal emergency, and in these cases inform the assignor or the Association at the earliest possible time.

When writing reports, set out the true facts.

Dress in proper attire for officiating.

Parents/Guardians and Spectators

In addition to paragraph 7 above, Parents/Guardians and Spectators at events will:

Encourage athletes to play by the rules and to resolve conflicts without resorting to hostility or violence
Condemn the use of violence in any form.

Never ridicule a participant for making a mistake during a performance or practice.

Provide positive comments that motivate and encourage participants continued effort.

Respect the decisions and judgments of officials and encourage athletes to do the same.

Feedback on competition performances is provided by officials only to the coaching staff, so parents are encouraged to discuss any questions with your athlete's coach.

Recognize that officials, executives and staff act in good faith, and in the best interests of the athletes and sport as a whole.

Respect the decisions and judgments of officials and encourage athletes to do the same.

Never question an officials' or staffs' judgment or honesty.

Support all efforts to remove verbal and physical abuse, coercion, intimidation and sarcasm.

Respect and show appreciation to all competitors, and to the coaches, officials and other volunteers.

Refrain from the use of bad language, nor harass competitors, coaches, officials, parents/guardians or other spectators.
